February 26: Community Supported Agriculture—CSAs... Our Local Food Connections

Presented by Jayne Shord, Beech Springs Farm, Orrtanna; Chris Mayer, Director, Fulton Center for Sustainable Living at Wilson College, Chambersburg; and Kim & Jeff Mullen, Yesterday's Favorites, Waynesboro

A panel of farmers from three local Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) operations will explain what CSAs are and how they help local residents obtain fresh, locally grown, healthy foods close by. Questions from the audience are encouraged and can be submitted in advance by email to: info@renfrewinstitute.org.

March 12: To Market, To Market...Food Sources and Systems

Presented by Matt & Mary Harsh, Chesley Vegetable Farms, Smithsburg, Maryland

The Harshes will discuss local and regional food systems and the links to rural and urban farm markets in our region. Topics include transportation, various types of retail outlets from roadside stands to supermarkets, methods of marketing and networking among producers and vendors, and sources for many of our locally-produced foods.

March 26: Today's Family Farm...Succeeding through Innovation

and Jeni Malott (Misty Meadows Farm)

A panel of owner/operators from three local family farms will describe what they are doing to achieve economic viability, eco-friendly operations and sustainability through the use of cutting edge technologies, best management practices and innovative products and events. Questions from the audience are encouraged and can be submitted in advance by email to: info@renfrewinstitute.org.
